Chick-fil-A Film · Storyboard v2 · Sheet 11 of 13 · CF-085 to CF-091B

CF-085 · GEN

"The building is the company's."

CF-086 · GEN

"The kitchen gear is the company's."

CF-087 · GEN

"Even the company that runs the restaurant belongs to Chick-fil-A."

CF-088 · GEN

"You cannot sell the business, because it was never yours to sell."

CF-089 · GEN

"You cannot pass it to your kids, because you never owned it."

CF-090 · GEN

"And for a long time, most people in your seat ran just one store — so you cannot grow the way other owners do, by opening a second and a third."

CF-092 · GEN

"Your money is only the pay. The year you stop running that store, the money stops too."

CF-019 · REUSE (packed store from earlier in the film)

"You spent years building one of the busiest restaurants in the country. And the thing you built belongs to someone else."

CF-091 · GEN

"And you do not have to run a restaurant to know this feeling. A big title that makes it sound like you own something — while someone else owns everything under it."

CF-091B · GEN

"Almost everybody has lived a small piece of that story."

FLAG · CF-085: giant CHICK-FIL-A'S tag composited on the brick wall. CF-091B: now a tight crop of the new office CF-091 (old restaurant-crown image kept as CF-091B-v1-crown). CF-089B dropped from this sheet; CF-019 is a reuse.
