“Then it is gone — unless that person reaches into their own pocket and pays again. Most of them do not.”

The same gift box faded to a pale dashed ghost; beside it an empty, softly lit viewer seat in a row of dark empty seats. Text: none.

SHOT 102 · VO-154–155 · 7.6s

“It already happened to the man who held this record before you. He crossed a million subscribers — the first in history.”

The record holder: generic plain stickman (gray hoodie, NO tie, NO label) at his desk, arms up, confetti, COUNTER screen 1,000,000. Text: 1,000,000 only.

SHOT 103 · VO-156–158 · 7.2s

“A few weeks later, he looked at his number. About forty thousand were left. More than nine out of ten — gone.”

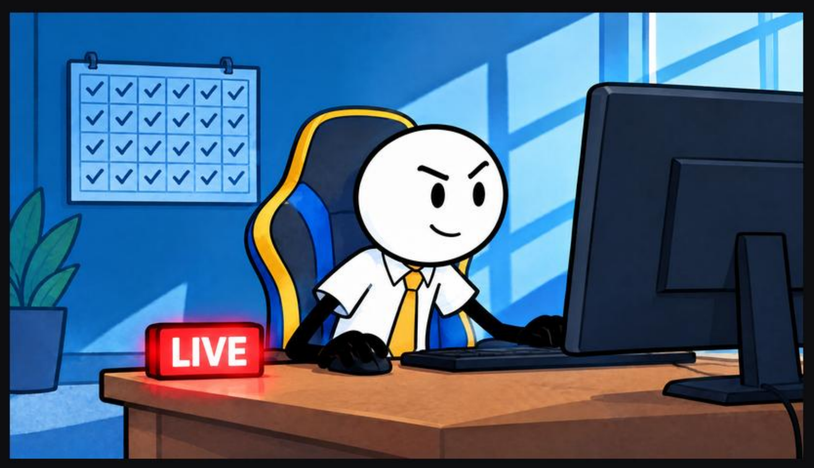

The same man weeks later: slumped, shocked, calendar pages scattered on the floor, room quiet and empty, COUNTER screen 40,000. Text: 40,000 only.

SHOT 104 · VO-159–162 · 7.5s

“Not because he failed. Because the calendar said so. Your customers cancel themselves. Every thirty days.”

A giant calendar page looms over him; one day circled in red: the 30. He is small beneath it, gold tie. Text: 30 only.

SHOT 105 · VO-163–166 · 5.9s

“So how do you win it back? You continue to stream. Every single day. No days off.”

He is LIVE again, determined, gold tie; behind him a calendar grid with EVERY square checked, no gaps. LIVE bright. Note: the grid has 24 squares (4×6), not 30. Text: none (LIVE sign only).

SHOT 106 · VO-167 · 6.0s

“When Kai Cenat started losing a lot of his subscribers, he introduced his Mafiathon.”

Plain generic stickman (gray hoodie, no tie, no name colors) at a marathon setup: headphones, mic, cans, snacks, blanket; wall of 30 blank day squares (5×6). Text: KAI CENAT (plain label) only.
