“He streamed for thirty days straight. Twenty-four hours a day. He slept on camera. He lived on camera.”

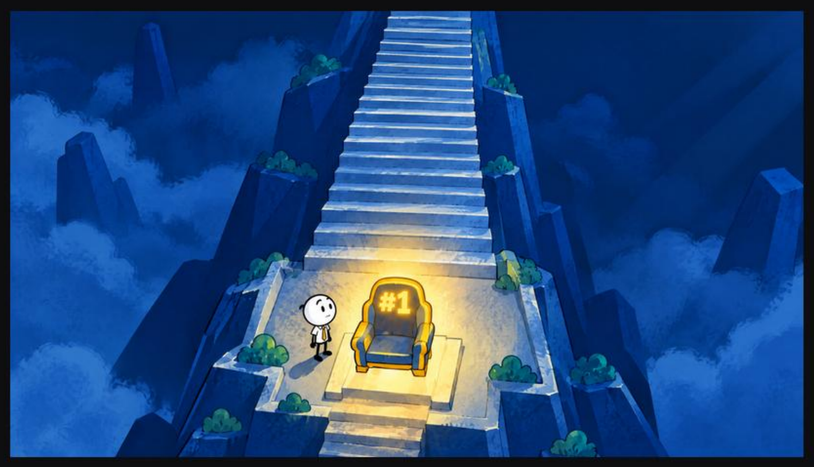

His room around the clock: bed beside the streaming desk; sun on one half of the window, moon on the other; he sleeps on camera (tripod camera with red dot, mic, headphones). Text: none.

SHOT 108 · VO-170–171 · 9.0s

“One whole month of his life — dedicated to keeping the crown he already won. That is what it might take for you to stay at the top.”

A crown resting on a full calendar grid, every square checked; he stands guard with a spear, tired. Note: the grid has 20 squares (4×5), not 30. Text: none.

SHOT 109 · VO-172 · 4.4s

“And that is why getting to the throne of #1 is only half the battle.”

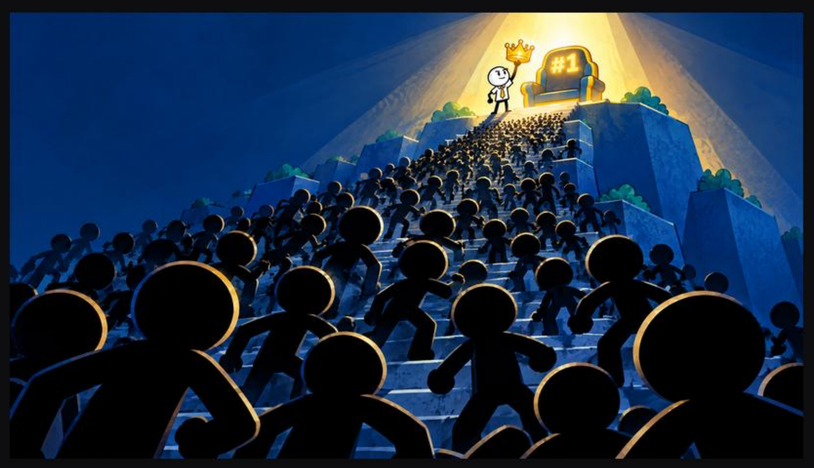

Callback to 90 from the top: he stands at the #1 throne and the road keeps climbing past it, out of frame. Text: none (#1 on throne).

SHOT 110 · VO-173–174 · 6.3s

“The crown is not a prize you get to keep. It is a bill that comes due every thirty days.”

On his desk: an open envelope, a bill with a crown printed on it and a red due-date stamp (tiny calendar icon, nothing readable), coffee mug. Text: none.

SHOT 111 · VO-175–176 · 6.3s

“And there are millions of people coming for that throne of yours. And they will do whatever it takes to get there.”

Closing: from far below, a swarm of black challenger silhouettes climbs the stairs toward his glowing throne; he stands at the top holding the crown. Text: none (#1 on throne).
