

Video 1 Upload Guide: 30 First Words

Miss Poppy's Playroom · YouTube long video · 13:14

Step by step

1. Open YouTube Studio

On a computer go to studio.youtube.com → Create (top right) → Upload videos.

2. Pick the video file

Choose FINAL-30-first-words-FULLQUALITY.mp4 (best quality). If you only have the GitHub copy, use FINAL-30-first-words-small.mp4.

3. Title

Paste: 30 First Words for Toddlers | Learn to Talk with Miss Poppy | Toddler Learning Video

4. Description

Paste the description below (the chapter times are already in it).

5. Thumbnail

Upload thumbnail → pick one of THUMBNAIL-option-1/2/3.png (my pick: option 1, "Say BALL!").

6. Playlist

Create a playlist Learn to Talk with Miss Poppy and add the video.

7. Audience – IMPORTANT

Select Yes, it's made for kids. This is required by law (COPPA) for toddler videos. YouTube will turn off comments and personalized ads for you; that's normal for kids channels.

8. Show more → Altered content

No (Miss Poppy is an obviously animated cartoon character, not a real person). The AI note is already in the description.

9. Show more → Tags

Paste the tags below.

10. Show more → Language & captions

Video language: English. Then on the Video elements step: Add subtitles → Upload file → With timing → choose CAPTIONS-30-first-words.srt.

11. Show more → Category

Education.

12. Video elements

Skip end screens and cards: YouTube turns them off for made-for-kids videos. The playlist from step 6 keeps kids watching instead.

13. Checks

Wait for copyright check (all music and voices are original/AI-made for this channel, so it should pass).

14. Visibility

Public, or Schedule for a weekday morning (7–9 am your time is when toddler parents watch).

Description (copy & paste)

Learn 30 first words with Miss Poppy! ✏️ A gentle, slow toddler learning video with pauses so your little one can say each word too: hi, mama, dada, ball, car, dog, cat, cow, milk, apple, more, up, all done, night-night and more.

Watch together and cheer your toddler on! Every word gets a "Can you say...?" pause, mouth shapes to copy, toys, animals, songs and a wiggle break.

👶 For babies, toddlers and preschoolers (ages 1–4)
